

Direct Soil Conductivity & Temperature Tester

- The HI 98331 Soil Test is a special pocket tester designed to directly measure soil conductivity and temperature.
- With an incorporated sensor in the penetration probe, readings are automatically temperature compensated.
- Conductivity range can be calibrated at 1 point and is designed to be calibrated in liquid.
- Penetration probe included.